

WELCOME!

"The views at dawn show a city of contrasts: the Arabic fortress and castle on the top of the mountain, the city center by the port, churches here and there, modern buildings full of life and business, beaches awaiting to be enjoyed in just a few hours..."

My friends and I are playing a game in this cruise. Each visit is decided only by one of us, so at this time today I don't know yet if I am going to visit the city, Costa del Sol, or maybe Cordoba or Granada. For sure we will try some local dishes and do some shopping. Or maybe not, and we have some other adventure for today?"

It's time to smile, go and see..."
